

Medieval Fortifications (10th–14th c.)

The first masonry fortification of Wawel Hill was raised using pieces of limestone of various sizes supplemented with brick fragments that were bonded with lime-sand mortar.